

Pacific Journal of Medical and Health Sciences

Call for Research Papers, Articles, Reviews and Case Reports

Dear Sir / Madam,

Pacific Academy of Higher Education and Research University, Udaipur is bringing out Pacific Journal of Medical and Health Sciences, a peer-reviewed biannual print and online publication under the Chief Editorship of Dr. D. P. Agrawal. The journal is aimed at publishing important researches and advances in clinical and basic studies of the various aspects of medical and health sciences and promoting communication among specialists, researchers, doctors, and health workers. This is to invite unpublished, original, research-based, empirical, applied or conceptual papers, articles, reviews, and case reports from your good-self for the inaugural issue of the journal.

You may also motivate your peers to contribute their research papers.

Please submit your manuscript via email (edit.med@pacific-university.ac.in). You are requested to see the attached detailed guidelines for authors. For any query, please email or call at +91-9672917863.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
